The screenshot shows the OPAC search interface with the following elements:

- Navigation tabs: Simple Search (selected), Advanced Search, Course Reserves, New Books.
- Find This: A text input field containing "education".
- Quick Limit: A dropdown menu set to "None".
- Find Results in: A dropdown menu with options: Journal Title Keyword (selected), Command Search with Relevance, Date Search (Left Anchored).
- Buttons: Search, Reset, and Limits.
- Footer: "10 records per page" dropdown.

Remember you can scroll down for more options here.

In this example, I am only looking for journals with the word "education" in the title somewhere. I would find that there are 28 serial titles on the shelves of the Darling Library with the word "education" in the title.

The screenshot shows a detailed record view in a Microsoft Internet Explorer browser window. The address bar shows a URL with search parameters. The page displays search results for "education" and shows 4 of 28 entries. The selected entry is "Children's literature in education." with the following details:

- Status: Check Shelves

Annotations in the image point to:

- "title" pointing to the title "Children's literature in education."
- "1st floor" pointing to "Recent Issues: v. 18 (1987) - CURRENT"
- "2nd floor" pointing to "Older Issues: v. 8 no. 1 (1977) - v. 9 no. 1 (1978) no. 7 (1972) - no. 23 (1976)"
- "A break in the sequence indicates a missing issue." pointing to the gap between v. 9 and v. 8.
